

News

Fellerman Speaks At EagleBank's Seminar named "Current Opportunities to Enhance Your Association's or Foundation's

October 9, 2013

On October 9th, Michael Fellerman, Partner with Linowes and Blocher LLP, participated in a program presented by Eagle Bank called "Current Opportunities to Enhance Your Association's or Foundation's Finances and Investments. What Association and Foundation Executives Need to Know Right Now About Current Trends in Non-Profit Organization Finance and Investments." The program revolved around what nonprofit executives should know about current trends in nonprofit finance and investments. Mr. Fellerman spoke about the issues facing nonprofits in entering into joint ventures with for-profit businesses, the advantages and pitfalls of doing them, what the IRS looks at, and how such ventures should be structured.