

News

Linowes and Blocher Welcome New Associates

January 28, 2014

Preston D. Foulger is an associate in the Real Estate Transactions practice group in the Bethesda office. Mr. Foulger concentrates primarily in the areas of real estate acquisitions, finance, dispositions and construction contracts. Mr. Foulger may be reached at 301-961-5112 or at pfoulger@linowes-law.com.

Megan Roberts-Satinsky is an associate in the firm's Annapolis office. Ms. Roberts-Satinsky focuses her practice on environmental counseling, regulatory compliance, permitting and transactional due diligence. She counsels clients on compliance with a variety of federal environmental laws and their state counterparts. Ms. Roberts-Satinsky's educational and professional background gives her a unique ability to provide clients with a project-specific combined scientific and legal analysis of environmental statutes and regulations. Ms. Roberts-Satinsky may be reached at 443-949-3791 or at mroberts-satinsky@linowes-law.com.

David L. Weintraub is an associate in our Real Estate Transactions practice group in the Bethesda office. Mr. Weintraub advises clients on all aspects of commercial real estate acquisitions, financing, development and dispositions. Clients include owners, investors, funds, lenders and developers of all asset types. Mr. Weintraub is particularly experienced in real estate-secured financing. Mr. Weintraub joins us from the real estate practice group of a large Baltimore law firm. Mr. Weintraub may be reached at 301-961-5258 or at dweintraub@linowes-law.com.