News

Witkin Moderator and Panelist at Upcoming DC Bar Event on DC and MD Lead Paint Laws

Attorneys

James B. "Jim" Witkin

March 11, 2015

James B. Witkin, Partner with Linowes and Blocher LLP, will be a moderator and panelist at the DC Bar's seminar on "Lead Paint Laws in the District and Maryland - The Basic and Recent Changes." The seminar will be held on Wednesday, April 1, 2015 at the D.C. Bar Conference Center located at 1101 K Street, N.W. in Washington, D.C. The seminar will be held from Noon to 2:00 p.m.

The seminar will cover the basics of lead paint laws as well as recent changes. Speakers include, besides Mr. Witkin, Pierre Erville, Associate Director, District Department of the Environment Lead and Healthy Housing Division, and Chris Corzine, Assistant Attorney General with the Maryland Department of the Environment.

If you would like more information and/or to attend this seminar, please go to: http://www.dcbar.org/marketplace/event-details.cfm?productCD=071529REL