

What Sets Us Apart

At Linowes and Blocher LLP our clients are our first priority. We work hard every day to provide comprehensive legal services across various practice areas. We handle sophisticated litigation and real estate matters as well as complex tax and corporate structuring. Our experience in land use and zoning is unparalleled in the region and enables us to be innovative and confident in our approach to modern day development challenges.

Since 1956, we have represented a variety of clients including developers, property owners, business owners, non-profits, investors and even government entities. Today we continue to broaden our client base by expanding our knowledge and experience throughout the Maryland-DC-Virginia area. With cutting edge technology incorporated into our legal practice, we can better serve our clients and remain connected and responsive.

Linowes and Blocher LLP is also proud to mention that the average tenure of its attorneys is twenty-seven years. Linowes and Blocher LLP provides an outstanding work environment that is stimulating, supportive, and which respects and values the work-life balance for its staff.
