As a law firm, Linowes and Blocher LLP is committed to making the communities in which we live, work and play better places. We are active in numerous non-profit organizations where our attorneys not only serve on boards and sponsor events, but roll up their sleeves to lend a helping hand. We have long supported pro-bono programs providing legal services to the homeless and soup kitchens as well as helping to obtain regulatory approvals for group homes and housing programs.

The following is a partial list of non-profit organizations for which attorneys in the firm have provided Pro-Bono legal assistance or have served in leadership positions:

- American Jewish Committee
- Annapolis Community Foundation
- Anne Arundel Affordable Housing Authority
- Anne Arundel County Public Library
- Aunt Hattie's Place
- Building Industries Foundation
- Chesapeake Bay Trust
- Collective Empowerment Group
- Community Profits Montgomery
