

News

Yum Yu Cheng Selected to Participate in ULI Leadership Institute

July 19, 2012

Press Release

We congratulate our partner, Yum Yu Cheng for being selected to participate in the Urban Land Institute (“ULI”) Washington’s Regional Land Use Leadership Institute 2012-2013 Program.

The Mission of ULI Washington’s Regional Land Use Leadership Institute is to provide a powerful local resource to raise awareness and strengthen collaboration among real estate industry leaders from all sectors to tackle the region’s complex land use issues. The Regional Land Use Leadership Institute will develop tomorrow’s leaders who share the ULI mission; communication and action among the sectors that make up the real estate industry will be facilitated by the Institute. Throughout the program, the 30 chosen participants will enjoy a mix of lectures and experiences in which they collaborate with other real estate professionals in learning about the region and the complex issues confronting it.