Nancy Floreen Addresses Current Commercial Development Issues at Linowes and Blocher Luncheon

June 6, 2012

Press Release

As part of its “A Seat At The Table With....” speaker’s program, the Legislative Committee of NAIOP Maryland/DC (Linowes and Blocher LLP attorney Steve Elmendorf, Chair) hosted a luncheon at Linowes and Blocher LLP’s Bethesda office for Montgomery County Councilmember Nancy Floreen. Councilmember Floreen is the Chair of the Council’s Planning, Housing & Economic Development Committee. She discussed and answered questions on a wide range of current County issues affecting the County’s commercial development community; including job growth, budget and tax issues, development process issues, new master plans and recent Council legislation affecting public/private partnerships.
