

News

Christopher D. Scott Joins Linowes and Blocher

June 1, 2015

Christopher D. Scott joins Linowes and Blocher LLP as a Partner in its Business Transactions Practice Group and chairs the Tax Practice Group. Mr. Scott concentrates in tax planning for real estate transactions, mergers & acquisitions, capital funding of business ventures, and executive compensation; and he represents taxpayers in tax disputes with the federal, state, and local governments. Mr. Scott concentrates in the governance laws of unincorporated businesses, estate planning, and the administration of trusts & estates. He has represented a wide variety of corporate and individual clients, including financial institutions, in diverse commercial transactions, and specializes in representing clients in complex real estate financing transactions.

Mr. Scott has lectured and written articles on a variety of deal structuring and financing issues, with particular emphasis on matters affecting the real estate industry and matters affecting emerging businesses. His practice at the firm centers on tax planning, general corporate matters, joint venture formations, estate planning and other business planning and dispute resolution.

Mr. Scott may be reached at 301-961-5135 or a cscott@linowes-law.com.