

News

Former Clerk of the Court of Special Appeals' Chief Judge Joins Linowes

July 6, 2015

Linowes and Blocher LLP is pleased to welcome Peter Z. Goldsmith, former clerk for the Honorable Peter B. Krauser, Chief Judge of the Court of Special Appeals of Maryland. Mr. Goldsmith joins Linowes as an associate in the Annapolis, Maryland office. His practice will focus on land use, litigation and real estate.

A cum laude graduate of the University of Maryland School of Law, Mr. Goldsmith was an Articles Editor on the Maryland Law Review and elected president of his class. He also earned the William P. Cunningham Award for extraordinary achievement and service to the law school. During his final year, he served as a judicial intern to the Honorable Marvin J. Garbis of the United States District Court for the District of Maryland.

Previously, Mr. Goldsmith worked for NVR, Inc., a national homebuilder. He was a project manager in Prince George's County and a sales associate in Prince George's, Charles, and Baltimore counties.

Mr. Goldsmith may be reached at 443-949-3789 or pgoldsmith@linowes-law.com.